

II. Write a story based on the six pictures. (70 points)

1. Give a title to the story.
2. Decide on a sequence for the pictures and number them in order 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.
3. Come up with an account of what happens, which involves description followed by subsequent interpretation of people's movements and postures around a space (e.g., where they are, what they are doing, and what things in the environment are). You may also write dialogue to convey their actions or emotions.
